

Every culture in the history of the world has had some concept of what God is like.

The most important element of God's nature is His holiness.

It is also important to understand that God is an eternal spirit (John 4:24)

God is also, by nature, sovereign.

Another key aspect of God's nature is His immutability.

The Almighty's sovereignty speaks to His right to do whatever He wishes, and His omnipotence speaks to His ability to do so.

We must not overlook God's wrath, which flows from His holiness.

Love is more than an attribute of God; He is literally the essence of love.

Jesus showed us that God is love (1 John 4:8)
